

ACLU-TN Right to Vote Campaign

"Get Your Right to Vote Back" Town Meeting

MEMPHIS:

Tuesday, August 15, 2006
6:30 pm—8:30 pm
School of Law
U of Memphis, Room 248
3715 Central Avenue

Welcome: Kim Cox, Restoration Project
Supported by: NAACP—

Memphis/Shelby County Branch and
Ben F. Jones Chapter, National Bar Assoc.

JACKSON:

Thursday, September 7, 2006
6:30 pm—8:30 pm
Madison County Agricultural
Complex Auditorium
309 North Parkway

Welcome: Rev. Willie Ozier, NAACP—Jackson

Public Chapter 860, a new law, simplifies the process for restoring voting rights to persons with past felony convictions who have completed their sentences. What was the country's most confusing system, with six different procedures for restoration, has been streamlined into a single restoration process. Come learn about voting rights in Tennessee and how to get your right to vote back!

MEMPHIS:

Panelists Will Include:

JACKSON:

Erika Wood

Brennan Center for Justice

Prof. Chris Uggen

Chair of Sociology, University of Minnesota

Gina Higgins

Ben F. Jones Chapter, National Bar Assoc.

James Johnson

Memphis/Shelby County Election Commission

Alex Friedman

Former felon who has restored his voting rights

Ana Munoz

Brennan Center, National Right to Vote Campaign

Michelle Sellers

Jackson-Madison-Henderson County Bar

Kim Buckley

Madison County Election Commission

Denver Schimming

Former felon who has restored his voting rights

Rev. William Ozier

NAACP—Jackson

The League of Women Voters will provide voter registration.

The Tennessee "Right to Vote Campaign" is a coalition of civil rights and civil liberties organizations working to restore voting rights for individuals with felony convictions. Campaign partners include:

American Civil Liberties Union of Tennessee (ACLU-TN)

Catholic Public Policy Commission

Tennessee AFL-CIO Labor Council

Tennessee Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (TACDL)

Tennessee Bar Association

The Restoration Project

P. O. Box 120160, Nashville, TN 37212 (615) 320-7142 www.aclu-tn.org