

ACLU-TN Right to Vote Campaign

"Get Your Right to Vote Back" Town Meeting

Public Chapter 860, a new law, simplifies the process for restoring voting rights to persons with past felony convictions who have completed their sentences. What was the country's most confusing system, with six different procedures for restoration, has been streamlined into a single restoration process. Come learn about voting rights in Tennessee and how to get your right to vote back!

MURFREESBORO:

Wednesday, Sept. 6, 2006

6:30 pm—8:30 pm

Patterson Park Community Center

521 Mercury Boulevard

Welcome: Goldy Wade,
NAACP—Murfreesboro (invited)

Panelists:

Ana Munoz

Brennan Center for Justice, Right to Vote Campaign

Barbara Futter

Bar Association

H. Hooper Penuel

Rutherford County

Election Commission

Alex Friedman

Former felon working to restore his voting rights

The League of Women Voters will provide voter registration.

The Tennessee "Right to Vote Campaign" is a coalition of civil rights and civil liberties organizations working to restore voting rights for individuals with felony convictions. Campaign Partners Include: American Civil Liberties Union of Tennessee (ACLU-TN); Catholic Public Policy Commission; Tennessee AFL-CIO Labor Council; Tennessee Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (TACDL); Tennessee Bar Association; and The Restoration Project.

P. O. Box 120160, Nashville, TN 37212 (615) 320-7142 www.aclu-tn.org