

• TENNESSEE •
COALITION
FOR SENSIBLE JUSTICE

Stopping the Revolving Door: A Conversation on Safety, Savings and Our Criminal Justice System

Thursday, December 8th
6:00 P.M - 7:30 P.M.

Cumberland Meeting Room
at the Embassy Suites, West Knoxville
9621 Parkside Drive, Knoxville, TN 37922

Join in conversation with the Tennessee Coalition for Sensible Justice on problems with the current criminal justice system, strategies for change, and how you can get involved in the movement for reform.

Presented in partnership with the USA TODAY NETWORK-Tennessee, this event is the second of three community discussions being held across the state.

Panel discussion moderated by Jack McElroy, editor of the Knoxville News Sentinel

For more information, contact (615) 383-6431.

The Tennessee Coalition for Sensible Justice is a nonpartisan coalition committed to advancing criminal justice reforms that enhance public safety, promote rehabilitation and re-entry, and save taxpayer dollars in order to create a just and fair criminal justice system that offers every Tennessean the opportunity to become a productive member of society.