

• TENNESSEE •
COALITION
FOR SENSIBLE JUSTICE

Putting Justice in Our Justice System

Tuesday, November 29, 2016
6:00 P.M - 7:30 P.M.

Raleigh Community Center
3678 Powers Road, Memphis, TN 38128

Join in conversation with the Tennessee Coalition for Sensible Justice on problems with the current criminal justice system, strategies for change, and how you can get involved in the movement for reform.

Presented in partnership with the USA TODAY NETWORK-Tennessee, this event is the first of three community discussions being held across the state.

Panel discussion moderated by David Waters, Columnist, The Commercial Appeal

For more information, contact (615) 383-6431.

The Tennessee Coalition for Sensible Justice is a nonpartisan coalition committed to advancing criminal justice reforms that enhance public safety, promote rehabilitation and re-entry, and save taxpayer dollars in order to create a just and fair criminal justice system that offers every Tennessean the opportunity to become a productive member of society.