A Witness to History

Dr. Martin Luther King's Last Days in Memphis

Please join us for a discussion with attorney Mike Cody, who, as an ACLU cooperating attorney, represented Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in his fight to march in support of striking sanitation workers in Memphis, despite the city's prohibition of the march. Cody will discuss 1960s Memphis and the ACLU, including his work with Dr. King in the days leading up to his assassination. This event, co-sponsored by Nashville Public Library, is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact us at aclutn@aclu-tn.org or 615-320-7142.
